

Safety Delegate Training (Customised to your workplace)

The aim of this course is to prepare workers with the skills and knowledge required to provide Work Health and Safety advice in the workplace as a safety delegate. Upon completion of this course you will have the basic understanding of the roles of a Health and Safety Representative, without the authority to issue PIN or s85.

The training provided will be customised to include specific workplace statistics, internal processes and internal forms (hazard identification, incident reports etc.) to ensure that the training is as relevant to your organisation as possible. This will enable your workers to confidently apply their new skills and knowledge back to the workplace immediately.

Who should do this course?

Workers who have been elected to a health and safety role, or have increased health and safety responsibilities, should complete this course to ensure they have a clear understanding of WHS legislation.
